CMW Makes Personnel Additions

Eric Krepps Named Chief Operating Officer

CMW Inc. welcomes Eric L. Krepps as Chief Operating Officer. As COO, Mr. Krepps' responsibilities include generating profit growth through operational management, financial management, and the development of targeted business. He will also analyze organizational functions, and continuous improvement initiatives designed to improve customer satisfaction and growth of the business. Mr. Krepps will develop high performance teams capable of implementing business development strategies across all three primary business units.

Mr. Krepps brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to CMW in the areas of manufacturing systems, process improvement, quality and financial management. He spent the bulk of his career building, developing and managing operations in Asia, Mexico and other parts of the world while holding leadership positions with Eaton/Aeroquip, Sanmina-SCI, and Faurecia Systems. Mr. Krepps earned a Masters of Business Administration from Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio in 1998, and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (Accounting) from Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio in 1985. He is also a Certified Public Accountant. CMW is very excited about the contributions to be made by its expanded leadership team.

CMW, the former Mallory Metallurgical Co., is an Indianapolis, Indiana based manufacturer of highly-engineered metal alloys and composites used in a broad array of industrial applications. CMW makes products in three primary market segments with business units dedicated to arc-tolerant electrical contacts, high-density metals and resistant welding consumables. Dating back to 1916, it owns dozens of highly recognizable patents and registered trademarks around the world.
