CMW MAKES PERSONNEL ADDITIONS

JAMES BREARLEY NAMED METALS BUSINESS SUPERVISOR

CMW Inc. announced that James Brearley joined the firm as Metals Supervisor. His responsibilities include supervising a number of employees across three departments. He is responsible for the daily production in the powder fabrication, powder pressing, powder composite and grinding operations. Mr. Brearley also oversees the daily schedule to ensure that customer expectations are fully met for quality and service.

Mr. Brearley most recently served as a Product Line Manager for Praxair Surface Technologies in Indianapolis. Praxair manufactures powdered metals for the Powder Coating industry. An Alvin, Texas native, Mr. Brearley received his high school diploma from Alvin High School.

CMW is very excited about the contributions that will be made by its expanded team. CMW, the former Mallory Metallurgical Co., is an Indianapolis, Indiana based manufacturer of highly-engineered metal alloys and composites used in a broad array of industrial applications. CMW makes products in three primary market segments with business units dedicated to arc-tolerant electrical contacts, high-density metals and resistant welding consumables. Dating back to 1916, it owns dozens of highly recognizable patents and registered trademarks around the world.
